Amendments to the Claims

This listing of claims will replace all prior versions, and listings, of claims in the above-identified application:

Listing of Claims

1. (Canceled)
2. (Currently Amended) The urine collection device of claim + 11, further comprising a portable frame for supporting the urine collection device.
3. (Original) The urine collection device of claim 2, wherein the portable frame further comprises a plurality of wheels coupled to the frame.
4. (Original) The urine collection device of claim 2, wherein the portable frame further comprises a container for holding cleaning products.
5. (Currently Amended) The urine collection device of claim + 11, wherein the urine collection receptacle is releasable coupled to the conduit using a quick release fitting.

Amendment Dated December 3, 2004
Response To Office Action Dated September 29, 2004

12. 11. (Currently Amended) The ~~A~~ urine collection device of claim ~~1~~, a urine collection receptacle configured to receive urine from a human and having an inlet formed from an upper surface and a lower surface, wherein the upper surface is positioned at an angle between about five degrees and about 35 degrees relative to the lower surface;

a reservoir for collecting the urine received by the urine collection receptacle, wherein
the reservoir is portable and is in fluid communication with the urine collection receptacle
through a conduit;

a pump capable of pumping a fluid without contacting the fluid, wherein the pump is in contact with a portion of the conduit between the urine collection receptacle and the reservoir for pumping urine from the urine collection receptacle to the reservoir; and further comprising an on/off switch coupled to a support device for supporting the urine collection receptacle when the urine collection receptacle is not in use and configured to turn the pump on when the urine collection receptacle is removed from the support device.

13. 12. (Currently Amended) The urine collection device of claim ~~1~~ 11, wherein the pump is a peristaltic pump.

Amendment Dated December 3, 2004
Response To Office Action Dated September 29, 2004

- ~~14.~~ 13. (Currently Amended) The urine collection device of claim ~~1~~ 11, wherein the conduit is a flexible conduit.
- ~~15.~~ 14. (Currently Amended) The urine collection device of claim ~~14~~ 13, wherein the conduit is transparent.
- ~~16.~~ 15. (Currently Amended) The urine collection device of claim ~~1~~ 11, wherein the reservoir is connected to the conduit with a quick release fitting.
- ~~17.~~ 16. (Currently Amended) The urine collection device of claim ~~1~~ 11, wherein the reservoir is transparent and marked to indicate the volume of urine contained in the reservoir.
- ~~18.~~ 17. (Currently Amended) The urine collection device of claim ~~1~~ 11, wherein the reservoir includes an exhaust port.
- ~~19.~~ 18. (Currently Amended) The urine collection device of claim ~~1~~ 11, wherein the pump is operable at varying speeds.

20. 19. (Currently Amended) The urine collection device of claim 18, further comprising a check valve coupled to the urine collection receptacle.

21. 20. (Currently Amended) The A urine collection device of claim 1, a urine collection receptacle configured to receive urine from a human and having an inlet formed from an upper surface and a lower surface, wherein the upper surface is positioned at an angle between about five degrees and about 35 degrees relative to the lower
surface;

a reservoir for collecting the urine received by the urine collection receptacle, wherein
the reservoir is portable and is in fluid communication with the urine collection receptacle
through a conduit;

a pump capable of pumping a fluid without contacting the fluid, wherein the pump is
in contact with a portion of the conduit between the urine collection receptacle and the reservoir for pumping urine from the urine collection receptacle to the reservoir; and further comprising a safety switch for preventing the pump from running while the pump is in an open position.

22. 21. (Currently Amended) A The urine collection device of claim 20,
wherein comprising:

U.S. Serial No. 10/700,192
Amendment Dated December 3, 2004
Response To Office Action Dated September 29, 2004

~~a urine collection receptacle configured to receive urine from a human and having an inlet formed from an upper surface and a lower surface, wherein the upper surface is positioned at an angle between about five degrees and about 35 degrees relative to the lower surface;~~

~~a reservoir for collecting the urine received by the urine collection receptacle, wherein the reservoir is portable and is in fluid communication with the urine collection receptacle through a conduit; and~~ the pump comprises a peristaltic pump capable of pumping a fluid without contacting the fluid, wherein the peristaltic pump is in contact with a portion of the conduit between the urine collection receptacle and the reservoir for pumping urine from the urine collection receptacle to the reservoir.

23. 22. (Currently Amended) The urine collection device of claim ~~22~~ 21, further comprising a portable frame for supporting the urine collection device.

24. 23. (Currently Amended) The urine collection device of claim ~~23~~ 22, wherein the portable frame further comprises a container for holding cleaning products.

Amendment Dated December 3, 2004
Response To Office Action Dated September 29, 2004

39. 29. (Currently Amended) The urine collection device of claim ~~22~~ 21, wherein the conduit is attached to the urine collection receptacle at a corner of the urine collection receptacle.

31. 30. (Currently Amended) The urine collection device of claim ~~22~~ 21, further comprising an on/off switch coupled to a support device for supporting the urine collection receptacle when the urine collection receptacle is not in use and configured to turn the pump on when the urine collection receptacle is removed from the support device.

32. 31. (Currently Amended) The urine collection device of claim ~~22~~ 21, wherein the reservoir is connected to the conduit with a quick release fitting.

33. 32. (Currently Amended) The urine collection device of claim ~~22~~ 21, wherein the reservoir is transparent and marked to indicate the volume of urine contained in the reservoir.

34. 33. (Currently Amended) The urine collection device of claim ~~22~~ 21, further comprising a check valve coupled to the urine collection receptacle.

U.S. Serial No. 10/700,192
Amendment Dated December 3, 2004
Response To Office Action Dated September 29, 2004

~~35.~~ 34. (Currently Amended) The urine collection device of claim ~~22~~ 11, further comprising a safety switch for preventing the pump from running while the pump is in an open position.
